The best judgment of our entire Research Department and the experience of many years in growing countless thousands of Roses have been devoted to selecting the best all-round Roses for the J. & P. Preferred Dozen for 1932.

Ready in Autumn 1931 and Spring 1932

The 12 Roses pictured on this page constitute the most attractive collection we have ever offered. These Roses represent the entire range of Rose colors and have definite qualities of vigor, health, and floriferousness to commend them.

The J. & P. Rose Test-Garden, started in the spring of 1930, contains five plants each of commercial varieties and hundreds of new undisseeded kinds here on trial under rose-garden conditions. We are testing many new seedlings developed in our own Research Department, and new hybrids produced in Europe and Australia as well as in the United States, and sent to us by some twenty-four foreign hybridizers with whom we have contracts. Complete and thorough tests under actual growing conditions are made before any new varieties are introduced. This photograph was taken August 10, 1931. There are well over 6000 plants in this garden.

Hydrangea Petiolaris (The Climbing Hydrangea)

No vine that we know of has quite the same beauty of foliage or lacy abundance of fragrant flowers as this charmingly refined member of the great and useful Hydrangea family.

Its stem is woody and picturesque in winter, clinging tightly to stone- and brick-work by innumerable aerial roots, hugging a wall like ivy and requiring no tying or trellis. Its large, glossy foliage is superbly green and seemingly impervious to insect or fungous attacks.

In June, a lacy mantle of flowers overspreads the whole plant and exhales a dainty fragrance that pervades the whole garden. Unlike the other Hydrangeas, there is no hint of coarseness or exotic opulence in the flowers which come in broad, flat clusters of exquisite daintiness.

This is a rare plant which has been the treasured pet of horticultural connoisseurs for many years, and one of the finest specimens in America was the great vine which the late Dr. Sargent, of the Arnold Arboretum, enjoyed and cared for in Boston.

We are proud to be able to offer it this year for the first time in commercial quantities.

The Perennial Department of the J. & P. Company conducts most thorough and careful tests of both old and new varieties. Improved types are collected and seeds saved. We are trying to grow the best varieties in each class, and to make available for you uniform and dependable stock.

Hardy Perennial Plants

We are offering here a general practical list of transplanted, field-grown, strongly rooted perennials. In our Perennial Research Department we are developing carefully selected, superior strains of many varieties—growing from a few specimens only enough seed for our own needs—thus assuring strains on which you can absolutely depend for uniformity and of which we are justly proud.

Strong transplanted stock from the open field. One season older than much of the stock frequently offered.

Varieties marked with an (r) are for rock-gardens.

Varieties marked with a (c) are excellent for cut-flowers.

rc Anchusa myosotidiflora. This is a relatively new perennial entirely unlike the Anchusas formerly offered. It has large, rough, heart-shaped leaves arising directly from the ground. Blooms in early spring and continues to produce sprays of charming forget-me-not-like flowers for many weeks. It is an ideal ground-cover plant for shady places, particularly under deciduous trees. We know of nothing that is more useful or more beautiful than this Anchusa when combined with narcissus or daffodils in landscape use. It is a much more dependable plant than Mertensia virginica, which has heretofore been the popular companion for these early bulbs. After the flowers fade, the leaves remain green and attractive throughout the entire season and collapse only with the frost of autumn. In our opinion, this is one of the most valuable perennials ever introduced. $1.25 for 10; $10 per 100.

c Anemone hupehensis. This is a sturdy, dwarf Anemone, growing 1½ to 2 feet high, and resembling the Japanese Anemone in many respects, but it blooms earlier, is not so tall, and is much more richly colored. It is a fine plant for rock-garden use and comes into bloom in early August and continues until frost. It will succeed in half-shady places. $1.50 for 10; $12 per 100.

c AQUILEGIA (Columbine).

AQUILEGIA, BREEZE HILL. This is an exceedingly beautiful selection of long-spurred Columbine raised from seed taken from selected plants from the famous Breeze Hill gardens at Harrisburg, Pa. The Breeze Hill strain has been developed through a period of nearly twenty years' selection and interbreeding of all available types and strains. It is especially noted for its wide range of color, the length and delicacy of its spurs, and the stiff, erect habit of the plants. $1.25 for 10; $10 per 100.

Cærulea. True Rocky Mountain strain. Long-spurred, blue flowers. May, June. 2-3 ft. 1 00 8 00

AQUILEGIA CÆRULEA, Selected. These are very carefully chosen plants of the Rocky Mountain Columbine. In all ordinary strains of A. cærulea, a great many off-color plants will appear, but all such plants have been discarded from our selected strain which consists of the true pure blue variety only. $2 for 10; $15 per 100.

Chrysantha grandiflora alba. Large; white. 1 00 8 00

AQUILEGIA HAYLODGENSIS. This is an imported strain of Columbine forming plants of vigorous, upright growth, producing long-spurred red, purple, yellow, pink, blue, and white flowers, and generally considered the finest commercial variety available today. $1.25 for 10; $10 per 100.

c ARTEMISIA (Sage-Brush).

c Artemisia, Silver King. This is a well-known plant, but is so good and so desirable, both for border use and for cutting, that we feel it deserves special mention in this section. It has an erect, spire-like habit, with fine silver-gray foliage, which combines well with almost any flowers that can be planted with it. Beginning about the last of June, it is in excellent condition to be cut until late autumn. It dries perfectly and may be kept indefinitely through the winter. This is a superb florists' plant, and makes a good contrasting white accent in garden plants. $1.25 for 10; $10 per 100.

The wholesale prices in our lists apply on wholesale quantities. Orders should call for 10 of a kind and size and beyond that for multiples of 10

c Hollyhocks, Double, Named Varieties

The varieties which follow were located in a European nursery by one of our plant scouts a year or so ago. He was so impressed with the vigor of the plants and the beauty of the flowers in form and coloring that we imported the entire collection. These Hollyhocks have won many awards in European shows and have created a real sensation wherever shown. One of the most interesting things about them is that they may be cut and kept for several days, a fact which cannot be said of the ordinary varieties. They are especially effective in mass planting for garden effect.

Perennial Phlox

r Phlox subulata

Moss or Mountain Pinks

An early spring-flowering type with beautiful, moss-like, evergreen foliage which, during the months of April and May, is hidden under the masses of bloom. Fine plant for the rockery, border, and invaluable for covering graves or where a carpet of flowers is wanted. Because of its early flowering, should be in every rock-garden.

Statement of Inspection for Trueness to Name, 1931

Amherst, Mass., July 20, 1931

To Whom It May Concern:

I have examined for trueness to name all salable Apple stock now growing in the nurseries of Jackson & Perkins Company, Newark, New York, and I now declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief these trees are true to variety name as they stand in the nursery rows.

(Signed) A. P. French.

Terms and Conditions of Sale

This list cancels all previous quotations. All agreements and contracts are made subject to crop losses through unavoidable causes.

THE PRICES in this list are based upon present market conditions and are subject to change without notice. We invite correspondence with prospective buyers, and shall be pleased to quote special prices on want-lists for larger quantities than are named herein. On the other hand, these are wholesale prices and apply only to wholesale quantities; in no case will we fill retail orders, even from nurserymen. All orders should be made up for 10's or multiples of 10.

TERMS. The usual terms are offered to those of established credit or whose responsibility is known to us. Cash, security, or satisfactory references are required from unknown parties. All bills are due in sixty days unless other arrangements are made at the time of sale. All prices are net and not subject to any discount unless specially agreed upon. Interest charged after maturity.

SHIPPING. Customers are requested to give definite instructions for shipping. In the absence of special instructions we will use our own judgment, but with the distinct understanding that it is without responsibility on our part. All shipments travel at the risk and cost of the purchaser. We have the New York Central, the West Shore, and the Pennsylvania Railroads, enabling us to ship in any direction over trunk lines.

BOXES will be charged for at the rates noted below. These prices are somewhat reduced because we are now able to buy lumber somewhat more reasonably. However, these rates do not really cover present actual cost to us.

10 ft. 28 in. x 28 in.	4 20	10 ft. 22 in. x 22 in.	3 25	10 ft. 14 in. x 16 in.	2 50
10 ft. 26 in. x 26 in.	4 00	10 ft. 20 in. x 20 in.	3 15	10 ft. 12 in. x 14 in.	2 30

Add 50 cents on all sizes of 12-foot boxes; decrease in same proportion for shorter boxes.

BALES will be charged at actual cost of the material. We make no charge for packing or for delivery to the railroad station.

CLAIMS for any cause must be made promptly on receipt of goods. Any stock that is not exactly as represented must be reported promptly and on authority should be returned to us immediately. We will cheerfully and without question credit back the unsatisfactory plants, or send others; but we will not entertain claims made after goods have been once accepted, or when report is not made within ten days after arrival of the stock.

LIMITED LIABILITY AND NON-WARRANTY. In the event the nursery stock, or any part of it, sold by Jackson & Perkins Company, Newark, New York, should prove to be untrue to the name under which it is sold, or prove not to be of the kind or quality of nursery stock it was sold for, or ordered for, a replacement of the stock as originally ordered, or intended to be sold, without charge therefor, or a refund of the purchase price shall be a complete and entire satisfaction for any and all liability therefor of the seller, and such replacement or a refund of the purchase price it is agreed shall be the liquidated damages and all the damages to which the purchaser shall be entitled by reason of the premises. Except for such limited liability as herein set out, the seller, Jackson & Perkins Company, gives no undertaking or warranty, expressed or implied, as to the description, quality, growth, productiveness, or any other attribute of the nursery stock sold by Jackson & Perkins Company.

INSPECTION AND FUMIGATION. Certificate of Inspection will be furnished with every shipment and, when required, stock will be fumigated.

SPECIAL NOTICE. Correspondents are requested to use their printed business letterheads. We do not quote prices to retail buyers nor sell to planters; we have no retail trade of our own, and sell to the trade only; in justice to our only customers, the nurserymen, florists, and dealers, we use every effort to limit the distribution of trade prices to those whom we know to be entitled to receive them. Use printed stationery, or enclose business card.

LOCATION. We are located 30 miles east of Rochester, N. Y., and cordially invite a visit and inspection of our establishment.

ANEMONE HUPEHENSIS (Early Anemone)

This is a sturdy, dwarf Anemone, growing from 18 to 24 inches high, and resembling the Japanese Anemone in many respects, but it blooms earlier, is not so tall, and is much more richly colored. It is a fine plant for rock-garden use and comes into bloom in early August, continuing until frost. It will succeed in half-shady places. We recommend it especially for rock-gardens and for cutting.
